

SOMETHING / SOMEONE SPECIAL SPEECH OUTLINE- write on your own paper; make sure you follow the format.

Title:

I. Introduction (1 paragraph)

A. AGD - Attention Material: Something to intrigue the audience or explain to them this person or thing.

B. Bridge: Connecting sentence to help the flow of the paper

C. Thesis Statement: Identifies the main idea of your speech. What your topic is and why you are talking about it.

D. Preview Main points: (Main point 1, Main point 2, Main point 3)

[Transition:]

II. Body

(3 paragraphs-one for each main point)

A. Main point 1

- Tell about the “someone or something” in detail. The relationship you have with him, how long you have known him, how you met him (unless he/she is a biological parent, then it’s obvious how you met him/her), what he does for a living, or how he helps people. (1 paragraph)

[Transition:]

B. Main point 2

- Tell a story about him or explain in detail a about him as a person or reason why they are important to you and/or other people. (1 paragraph)

[Transition:]

C. Main point 3

- How has this person or thing changed you or made you a better person or changed your view of things? Be specific. (1 paragraph)

[Transition to conclusion:]

III. Conclusion (1 paragraph)

A. Final Review: Review main points (Main points 1, Main points 2, Main points 3)

B. Tie back to the audience and Concluding remarks: Review AGD and close speech

This speech will be worth 70 points for the content and delivery.

See the evaluation form at the reverse side.